Lieughen folge

Toper his Speech and Repentance at the time of his Death, who was executed upon Tower Hill, onthere day of November.

1 6 1 5.

Legether with a Meditarion and Vow of his

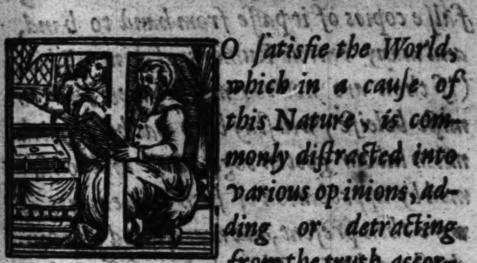

Afors unbi Lucrent

Printed by G. Ele for Nat Tartes in the to be fold at his thop near $ 100.

GHT Lieuxenaticol inc STATE PLANTS OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF OILVI, PIDE OF THE SELEN Not the state of t all of the second secon De ters medi Lacronia Plented by G. En firm M. S. En . and consent at the day

To the Reader Tameria

o satisfie the World, which in a cause of this Nature , is commonly distracted into parious opinions, adding or detracting from the truth, according to the humorous disposition with which it meets: And to doe Right to the dead Gentleman, who (albeit his offence mas foule to GOD and Man and hatefull to himselfe) deserved both love and pitty, for the Christian end bee made) baue In (Reader for thy sake) collected the sub-A3 Stance

To the Reader.

स्मिन्य स्थानिक flance of that Speech, delivered by him before bis Execution; though I may faile in circumstance, perbaps in his order. Many false copies of it passe from band to band, and many vntrue Rumors of him. This, (if thou art not soo much given over to miße-beleife) will stay both, as being with much labour gotten together, and confirmed by approbation of such Indgements as were then present, and neerest and best vn derstood bim: Though I confesse it falls sbort of that grace and life where with bee delivered it, who I must needs fay did it more exactly even beyond ordinary report: If so praying onto almighty God that thou mayest make that good ofe of this discourse as be ment thee that made it, and as I doe sharrelate it, I commit thee to GOD.

THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY O

The effect of Sir Geruale Ellowis his Speech, which hee made at his death on the Tower Hill, poon the 20, day of November.

See many Faces in this place, which I know right well, both Lords and Gentlemen whom

I have honored, and doe still love with many

THE PROPERTY OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF

FROM - NEW TON NEW TON - NEW TON - NEW TON TON THE TON many others of scuerall dispositions. All you beeing thus affembled to fee meefinish my dayes, the number of which is fum'd vp, for the very minutes of my life may now be reckoned. Your expectation is to have mee fay fomething, to give latisfaction to the World, and I will doe it fo farre as I can, albeit in that speech of mine, I shall (as it was spoken vnto me the last night) but chatter like a Crow. But whatsoeuer I deliuer, I beseech you to take from a wounded botome, for my purpole is to rip vp my very heart, and to leave nothing there which may proue any clogge to my Conscience... I have honored, and does all loue with

Hither - Stand - Stand

REPORT OF THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY.

Hither am I come to performe a worke which of all others is to Man the most easie and yet to Flesh and Blood is the hardest, and that is, To die. To hide therefore anything for any worldly respect, were to leave a blot ypon my owne Soule, which I trust shall be presented (through the mercies of my Maken, and ments of my Saniour) acceptable, before GODS high Tribunall.

And first I will labour to latisfic some, who before my apprehension were well conceipted of mee, but since my Arraignment as Lynderstand, carryed of mee but hard opinions, for that at the Barre I stood stiffly ypon the म्बर्ग महर्मित्रकार महिल्ला स्टिन्स स् the luftice of my Innocence; and this they impute as a great fault, beeing afterwards that I was found guilty of the Chimie. To which I answer, that I diditignorantly : Nay I was for farre from thinking my felle foule in the Fact, that vntill thele two Gentle men, (Doctor Felton and Doctor Whiting, the Phylicions for my Soule) sold mee how deepely I had imbrewed my hands in the blood of that gentleman, making mee by GODS law as guilty in the Concealing, as if I had beene a personall Actor in it : till then I lay, I held my felfe fo ignorant of the deede, and my Conscience so cleere, that I did never aske GOD forgisemelle, nor once repent mee of

* of Tover his Speech?

the Fact much was my blindnesse. So that it was not onely an error or rate thet a horrible finne, in secoto confent, but a worle coldenying for Bloody siles Treacherous, So Foules for Eikhyda Fact as that was; for which I must confesse the Kingli and the State have dealthonorably, roundly, and infilly with mee, lincondemning meening this death. And thus have I laboured and done my best to electe this point, being willing by all igood meants to reduce your first opinions of moe what as formerly you concepted well of mee, fo you would now with a charitable affection, performe Tthe last duty of your Christian loues towards mee, praying to GOD, both with B 2 Many me, and for mee, to the intent that this Cup, whereof I am to drinke, may not be grewous voto mee, but that it may be a joyfull conuciance to a better and more bleffed comfort.

Some perhaps will thinke it to be a Rigor of the State, or aggravation of my indgement; that I should die in this place, but this doe I take as an honor voto me, 8 cherein doe I acknowledge my selfe to stand much bound to the State, in that I have this favour wouch: fafed me to suffer Deach in sight of my Charge, even where I had sinned, on the Tower-hill, reather a han in the place of common Execution, when every base Malesactor dyethous where every base Malesactor dyethous

Tower bis Speech.

Many doe'l fee here whom I know well, and of whom I am likewife knowne: and now am la Speciacle for them to be looked on, whom in former times (and in all mens accounts) they held neuer likely to come to fuch an end. But herein hehold the juffice of God, who is to oppoldagain's finne, because that if we forget to feeke him whill we may, he will finde vs out when we would not be ten. For my felfe, I wil mid Tobnuol to make my fault seeme lesse, but will

It is expected I should lay formething of the fact which I have committed And hither am I come released to cleare my conscience (before I depart this world of all matters which I cigainst

THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF TH ther knowe, or can now temember. And so much I have already delinered in writing to my Lo. Chiefe Just. ice : and to proue that which I wrote is true, I gesterday confirmed it with the receiving of the bleffed Sacrament. withing vnto you all as much comfort by those holy Mysteries, as I tooke by them; and I doe heere (though not with fuch a bloud) yet with mine own bloud, seale that which I have write ten. For my selfe, I will hide nothing to make my fault seeme lesse, but will rip open this very heart of mine, and confesse before God myne owneys And hither am I come ellennesla cleare my confeience (before I der air si ylgnibəsəxə ibənnil əusd. I i.i.

inisg

Toven bis Speech ?

gainst thee O my maker, and inchis am I moltfaulty, that I did not reneale to the King, fo foondas I my felfe had knowledge of the busines. But (alas) feare to loofe these worldly pleasures, and the loug to promotion, made me forger my duty to my Soueraigne, and not to regard my God , who is a swift avenger of blooder and would to heauen I had musted to his providence, and set the thinges of this world at mought, for heavens lake, and a good conscience. You see Gentlemen promotion cannot refeue vs from the iustice of God, which alwaies purfues after finne: And therefore I exhort you not to trust in men (how great focuer) for they cannot hide themselves when God 101

God is angry; neither can they protect you from hame, when God will confume you; he that fittethin headen, will decide and forme their foolish Inventions. As for me, I will not space to lay open my owne shame: Thinke you I care for the reputation of this world? No, I weigh it not. This my soule shall receive more comfort from God in my youight dealing. bad I not god to blow side to segment and to brue great, for vpon me lay all the blood, thed, and to be thed: I have made many children farherles, many wives hufbandles, many parents children for and I my telfe leave a comfort leffe wife and eight children behinde me for it too:

Tower his Speech.

for if I had reucaled it when I might, I had freed much blood from being spilt, in so much as I could wish (Gods Instice and charity reserved) I might hang in chaines, till I rotte away by peecemeale; nor cared I what sortures my body were put vnto, so I might expiate or free the bloud of so many, (some in one place, and some in another) which is both like to bee shed, and is already shed, and the Lord knowes when it will have an end.

Concerning my selfe, I will aggranate the crime, by speaking of enery circumstance I can remember. And now it comes into my mind, what trust that gentleman put into me: hee reputed

The property of the property o The Lieuetenant of the

THE THE STREET WAS A PROPERTY OF THE PARTY O reputed me to bee most faithfull vnto him; (Oh the vildnesse of my heart!) I proued vnfaithfull, and was his deadly deceitfullfriend.

And here (Gentlemen) I exhort you all that you would take notice of this, ever to bee faithfull to those who put you in truft. . . Donle on

Sir Thomas O. trusted me, and I was vnfaithfull and treacherous to him, in drawing tickets for him to his disaduantage, I promised him secrecy, yet betrayed him, onely to fatisfy greatnesse: But God, who sees the secret thoughts of mans heart, will disclose all vniust actions at last nay, I am perswaded that whosoeuer they bee that

com-

entre production of the services

Tower his Speech.

commit sinne in their child-hood, at one time or other it will be reuealed.

In this place it commeth to my mind, that in my youger dayes (as wel beyond the Seas as here) I was much addicted to that idle veyne of Gaming. I was bewitched with it indeed? And I played not for little or for smal sums neither, but for Great-ones, yet euer haunted with ill lucke: And vpon a time, being much displeased at my losse, Isayd, not in a carelesse maner, Would I might be hanged, But ferioully, and aduitedly (betweene God and my selfe) clapping my hands vpon my breast, I spake thus, If ever I play again, then let me be hangd. Now gentlemen here you may behold the ustice of God, paying mee my wish and imprecation home. Bee carefull therefore Texhort you, that you wow nothing but that vnto which you will give all diligence to performe: for the powerfull God, before whom you make such vowes, will otherwise bee avenged:

neirlier but for Creat-ones, yet euer hanneed with ill lucke: And vpon a for this place Doctor VV hiting putting him in mind to satisfie the limit world touching his Religion will be thus he went on.

Joseph otopping my hands vp.
Joseph otopping my hands vp.
Joseph otopping my hands vp.
Joseph hands lowell been de thank of the line of th

FREE TO SEE STATE OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

Lower bis Speech.

forme murmiting and questions made about met for my Religion; some giving out that I was infected with A-nabaptisme: A fond, tidiculous foo-lish and phantastically opinion, which I mover affected but tather despited in the same of yillors it immore sool I have some manner that the manner of the party of the server of the s

GOD.

The first property of the forest of the first of the forest of the first of the fir

FRICTION OF THE PROPERTY OF TH

The Lieutenant of the nour and glory and in I leaven: and I make no doubt, but I shall fodaint ly be more happie then you all, and that I shall see G U D face to face: and if there be any point of innocency in once at all, I doe witefly cast it from mee, and I doe commit it wholly to GOD.

And for any matter of Glory, I doe with the Saints of GO Despect it through the merits of Christ, at the Refurection: yea it is my gloric to die thus. I might have died in my Bedde, or shooting the Bridge or else have fallen downe sodainly, in Tower bis Speech.

TOTAL COLOREST PROPERTY PROPERTY PARTY PAR which death I should have wanted this space to repent, being the sweet comfort and affured hope of Gods fauour which of his mercy he hath vouchfafed mee; So that it swalloweth vp all feare of death or reproch of the World: wishing vnto all you (Gentlemen) who now behold mee, that wherefocuer you shall dye, (either in your Beddes or else where howsoewer) you may feele luch comfort and resolution as God in his mercy hath bestowed vppon mee and my wounded Soule for this and the rest of my grieuous Sinnessi and here freme beand vouto becather of flone than of A. Co.

But mee thinkes I heare some of you coniccture and say, that I expresse

मान्या के स्वार के स

THE THINKS THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY. expresse no great Arguments or fignes of forrow: You think my heart should rather dissolue and melt into teares. then to appeare so insensible of feare as I may sceme: but I must tell you; teares were neuer common in mee: I may therefore feare though I do not weepe. Ihaue been couragious both beyond the Seas and heere in mine owne Country: but (Gentlemen) that was when there was no perill before mee. But now the stroke of death is vppon mee. It affrights mee, and there is cause to feare: yet notwith+ standing, my heart seemeth vnto you to be rather of stone than of flesh. Bur I would have you vnderstand, that this boldnes doth not proceed from

Matte state a trade and trade and a trade and trade and

Tower his Speech.

any manly fortitude, for I am a man, fraile as you are, and dare as little look death in the face as any other: the terors of death doe as much trouble my humane scale, as of any man what socuer; but that which swalloweth vp all manner of feare in me, & maketh me to glory and to rejoyce in, is, the full assurance which I conceive of the vn-speakable love of God to those who are his, of which number I perswade my selfero becone, and that I shall present-ly enjoy it.

I confesse I have sinned exceedingly, against thee (oh God) many wayes, in prophaning thy holy Sabaoths, in taking thy glorious name in vaine, in D my concupiscence in turning all thy graces into wantonnes, in my Riotous wasting so many of thy good Creatures, as would have telieued many poore people, whose prayers I might have had this day.

I have finned against thee in my Child-hood: but Childrens sinnes are childishly performed but I confirmed them in my manhood, there was my sinne. I am perswaded, there is no sinne, that a man committeeth in his life, knowing it to be a sin, and not repenting of it, but the Lord will judge it.

I admonish you therefore that are here

स्थान विकास मा स्थान के विकास के स्थान के किया है। जिस्सी के स्थान के किया है। जिस्सी के स्थान के स्था

Tower bis Speech.

heere allembled, to take good notice of your finnes, and let mone escape you vorepented. And yet when you have done the best you can, there will lie buried some one sinne or other sufficent to condemne you.

O Lord clense mee from my secret sinnes, which are in me so rife. I abused the tender education of my Parents. You perhaps that knew mee will say no; I lived in an honest forme, and was not bad in my life.

But I know best my selfe what I was:
80 if I who was so esteemed of amongst.
Men, shall scarcely be saued, what will 197792 D2 become

TOTAL SERVICE TOTAL SERVICE SE

become of those, whom you point at for notorious livers?

pownstaller bill libbiele for 155

The last night God put into my mind the remembrance of one finne of mine, which heere I will lay open, that others may take heed. I tooke a vaine pride in my pen, and some of my friendes would rell me I had some induments and speciall gift that way: (though I fay not so my telfe) but mark the judgement of God in this; that Pon which I was so proud of, bath struck mee dead, and like Absolons hayre hath hanged me: for there hath dropt a word or two from my Pen, in a letter of mine, which vpon my Saluation I am not ableto answer, or to gincany good acbecome compt :

WALL DEFENDED SOUTH THE WORK WAS THE THE WAY THE THE PARTY OF THE PART

Tower his Speech.

compt of At my Arraignment I pleaded hard for life, & protested my Innocency, but when my owne Pen came against mee, I was forthwith not able to speake anything for my selfe: for I stood as one amazed, or that had no Tongue.

Sce (Gentlemen) the luft ludge ment of GOD, who made that thing of which I was most proud, to be my bane: take notice how strangely sinne is punished, and learne enery one to structure against it.

I have heard the word of GOD, and often read it (but without vie) for I must rell you these two worthy,

D 3 Gentle-

NAME OF THE PARTY OF THE PARTY

Gentlemen (to whom I am so much bounden, God reward them for their loue) even they begat mee very latedly, for I am not ashamed to confesse that I was to be begotten vnto Christ within these three daies: yea I have often prayed against sinne, and made many vowes to forsake it, but vppon the next occasion, my soule heart bath beene ready to runne with the wicked.

Had I learned but this one lesson in the 119. Psalme, (Depart from mee ye wicked, I will keepe the Commandements of my God &c.) I had beene likely to have enjoyed many dayes heere on earths, whereas now you

The service of the se

Tower his Speech.

all fee mee ready to bee cut short by reason of my sinne.

int night when I heard the time has But (OLORD) albeit thou flayest mee, yet will I put my trust in thee plet the LOR Didoctome what hee will, I will dye vpon this hand (of trusting in him) if I faile many a soule hath miss'd; but I have fure hope of mercy in him I hee hath fufficed and fuccoured mee, I am fure, euer since the sentence of death hath paffed uppon meerfach comfort flowing from the Godly indeauors of these Gentlemen (the Divines Juithat meither the Reproach of this Death, sonor the ansmroTing in Man, no, it is Pro-

Torment of it hath any whit discouraged me; nay, let metell you, the last night when I heard the time was appoynted, and saw the warrant in Master Sheriffs hand for my death, it no whit daunted me: But what put this courage into me? onely the hope which I had in GODS mercies.

many a foulchard middle bur I have

This Hope was a Seede, and this Seed must come from a Ruote; I looked upon my selfe, and there was rather cause to despaire; and instrause, that I should not approach GODS presence. Thus then I disputed with GOD: This Hope being a Seede must have a Roote, and this Roote is not any thing in Man, no, it is Present a Tower bis Speech.

Cod, who hast elected me from eter-

Twiftell you, I received more completed this morning, comming along the Atreetes, than ever I did in all my life. I law much people gathered together, all the way as I came, to see thee brought to this flamefull end. Who with their hearty prayers and well withinks gladded and comforted my very fouls: informach as I could with that Had couse from Weltining Hart had couse have dyed to happily in the bed.

Bur you will fay, the feate but ipeechees, and that I being so neere death,

THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF TH my heart cannot be so free, as I seeme in my speech! I confelle, there are in my brest frailties, which doe terrifie, and will fill be busie with me, but I befeech you when I am at the stroake of death, that you would praie to GOD (with mee) that neither Sathans power, nor my weakenelle, may hinder my confidence. And I befeech Godthat amongst all who this dair heare m fome may profit by my end: it but one Soule, I shall have much co fort in that for that one louis genanother, and that other mi ylidhaue held you too long will draw to an end : intreat to in praier to God ford ences, and that I being so neere death, त्रत्येष वर्षात्र वर्षे वर्षात्र वर्षात्र वर्षात्र वर्षात्र । वर्षात्र वर्

Tower his Speech.

THE THE WORLD WINDS WINDS AND THE

The summe of his Prayer om

O Lord God omnipotent, who fittelt in Heaven, and seest all things which are done on earob to robom are knowne all occasions of wan and aibo doft deride and laugh to scorne their Foolish inventions: thou (Lord) who art powerfull to Sauc at an instant, bow do wne the beauens, and behold Mee wretched linner! rounderthy to looke vp, or lift vp my bands runto thee. Remember not (O Lord) the fines which I baue committed. away, this, Mist rebich is before mee; breake those thick Clo sodes which my himes batte made, and may let my request to come into thy prefence. Strepathen mee in th middelt of Death, in the assurance of th

Mercies; and give mee a toy full Passage into phy Heavenly Rest, now and for our.

Amen.

After bee had thus Prayed, hee tooke bis leave of all, with

CEntlemen, I shall see your faces now no more: and pulling down his Cap in his eies, laid some private prayer: in which time the Doctors prayed, and called to him, that hee would remember his assurance, and not be dismaied at the Cup, that hee was to drinke of: Hee answered, I will drinke it rop, and never looke what is in it.
And after a little time more spent in private

Tomer bis Speech

privat prayer, hee faid, Lordreceaue my Soule: And so yeelded up the Ghost.

His Meditation and Vow.

WW. Hon I confidenced Herods States, who shough bee heard Iohn Baptished by you was be intended with Herodias: and how Agrippaliked for sell of Paul as bee was persuaded almost to be some a Christian, and how young mans will man gooden follow Chirit tes was there one thing manting: meathought the state of finful man was not roulike. For alfo how the Angles though baning caught a Fish but by the chaps accounts it as his owne:

वित्ता का विश्व विश्व का विश्व का वित्ता का वित्ता owne: the Birdtaken but by the heale is a prey conto the Fowler: the Layler all holds his prisoner by one joint as afe, as cast intronchaines: then did I think the de do the se motions good, if not effected to the full? what though not notoriously enill? one since sufficient to tondern and is he pulled of all that guilty is of one? then said is the pulled of all that guilty is of one? then said is tone to the Lord I will freely cleans any maintain and wash my hands in innocency. I will take heed that I offend not in my tongers. Lord let my thoughts be such as I may also waies say, try and examine meet there he any consider the pour states any considerations.

a Filb but by the chaps account so as his

MAN WAR THE WARMING WAR

